

New Words 2012

Festival of New Writing in Aberdeen and North-East Scotland
1–30 September 2012

Saturday 1 September | 10am
Huntly Area Cancer Support Centre, Huntly

Doric Fly Cup

Margaret Grant and Phyllis Goodall

Saturday 1 September | 11.30am
Brander Library, Huntly

Charlie Ashton

Stories for children aged 8 upwards

Saturday 1 September | 12 noon
Highlander Bunkhouse, Huntly

There's a Poem in my Soup

Soup served with poetry from two popular books sold in aid of MacMillan Cancer Relief

Saturday 1 September | 2pm
Brander Library Garden, Huntly

Gaia: the Earth as a Living Being

Paul Kieniewicz

Saturday 1 September | 3pm
Brander Library, Huntly

Afternoon Tea with the Jacobites

Maggie Craig

Sunday 2 September | 10am–4pm | Huntly Auction Mart, Huntly

Writers' Pen

at the Huntly Auction Mart Cattle Pens

Tuesday 4 September | 7.30pm
OAP Hall, Huntly

Trials and Triumphs

Anne L. Forbes on the Gordons of Huntly in Sixteenth-Century Scotland

Thursday 6 September | 6.30pm
Books and Beans, Aberdeen

Three's Company

A selection of witty, heart-stirring and lyrical poems from three North-East poets

Friday 7 September | 7.30pm
Aberdeen Central Library, Aberdeen

Thomas Enger

Burned — Pierced — Scarred

Thursday 13 September | 6.30pm
Books and Beans, Aberdeen

Poetry with a Bite

Strap yourself in for readings from Kit Fryatt, Neil C. Young and Richard L. Anderson

Friday 14 September | 7pm
Lastbus Works Canteen, New Pitsligo

Pearls and Tractors

John Mackie, Haworth Hodgkinson and friends perform poetry with music

Wednesday 19 September | 7.30pm
Tin Hut, Gartly

Weaving Words

Original stories and poems spliced with traditional songs and music

Thursday 20 September | 6.30pm
Books and Beans, Aberdeen

Three Women of Words

Poetry, prose and song with Sheena Blackhall, Catriona Yule and Haseley Hinton

Thursday 27 September | 6.30pm
Books and Beans, Aberdeen

The Tay Bridge Reconstructed

McGonagall revisited and brought up to date with poems on topical issues

Friday 28 September | 7pm
Better Read Books, Ellon

Open Poetry Night

Come along to listen or bring a poem or two to read

Sunday 30 September | 7pm
The Lemon Tree, Aberdeen

Poetry n Motion

A celebration of words, dance and music

For full details of all events, including author photos and biographies, ticket prices, venue maps and reviews, visit:

www.newwords.co.uk